Céline Brune advises on complex, often cross-border proceedings before state courts and arbitral tribunals, as well as in pre-litigation settings. She specialises in corporate law and post-M&A disputes, turn-key construction and renewable energy, as well as contractual disputes, particularly those with an international background. She also has experience in the enforcement and setting aside of arbitral awards.

In addition, Céline Brune regularly acts as a secretary to arbitral tribunals in large-scale, complex arbitration proceedings.
