Laura advises on complex disputes before domestic and international arbitral tribunals and in pre-dispute settings. Laura has been involved in international arbitration cases, with a special focus on commercial, post-M&A and energy disputes. She acted as counsel in cases governed by a variety of procedural and substantive laws and under diverse arbitration rules (DIS, ICC, SCAI, CCBC etc.). She is admitted as a lawyer in Brazil and Portugal and registered with the Rechtsanwaltskammer Düsseldorf as a European Lawyer.

Laura has worked with numerous international dispute teams in multiple jurisdictions. Her interest in international work started in law school, where she was part of the first Brazilian team to participate in the International Criminal Court moot court in the Hague, Netherlands. Laura did several specializations in dispute resolution and has been involved with the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot for many years. In 2017 she moved to Germany where she obtained a master's degree in international dispute resolution. She has a particular interest in public international law and diversity and inclusion in arbitration.
